Introduction

Athletic programs should be conducted in keeping with the highest ideals of sportsmanship and positive citizenship. Winning must not be the primary goal of the program. Development of the athlete's physical, emotional and intellectual capabilities should be the primary objective. Placing winning and losing in proper perspective are expectations for athletes, coaches, parents, and spectators.

Administration

Purpose

It is the purpose of this handbook to coordinate the responsibilities and expectations for athletics in Columbus County Schools. This handbook is developed to assist you in organizing relevant information related to your job, clearly delineating your responsibilities, and establishing consistency in the quality of our athletic program.

This manual will help principals, athletic directors, and coaches in administering their respective athletic programs. Principals, athletic directors, and coaches are responsible for following the policies administered by the North Carolina High School Athletic Association, selected conferences, and the Columbus County Board of Education.

Few people have the influence of coaches on the lives of young people. You, as a coach, can make a positive difference in the athlete's future. Remember that the true value of athletics occurs long after graduation.

Overview

Being the most recognizable representatives of a school, cheerleaders are in a position of great influence; therefore, high standards of conduct are essential. Positive personal behavior and squad cohesiveness, demonstrate these standards. Appropriate behavior will help earn the respect of the student body, which is the core of developing effective school spirit and student involvement. Each cheerleader should strive to boost school spirit, promote good sportsmanship, develop good positive crowd involvement, and help student participants and spectators achieve the most worthwhile education objectives of the interscholastic program. All squads and coaches will adhere to the regulations and guidelines of the National Federation of the State High School Association (NFHS) and the NCHSAA.

Tryouts/Selection of Squads:

1. Cheerleader tryouts will be publicized and all students are eligible, regardless of sex or race, if they meet the eligibility and participation requirements:

- b. A cheerleader must have passed the minimum load of work during the preceding semester to be eligible at any point during the semester.
 - c. Must meet age eligibility requirements.
 - d. As the cheerleading squad may be co-ed in composition, uniforms will be assigned using the following guidelines: Female cheerleaders will wear warm-up suits or traditional skirts and tops. Male cheerleaders will wear warm-up suits or shorts and shirts (designed and approved by the coach and school). The coach will determine which dress is appropriate.
2. The timeline for tryout practices will be offered for a minimum of three (3) days.

All employees, students, and third parties associated with schools must avoid any action or conduct which could be viewed as sexual harassment. The district will take prompt, appropriate, and responsive action to end sexual harassment and to prevent its reoccurrence. Teachers and school administrators are expected to use judgment and common sense, which are important elements of a proper response to a particular allegation of sexual harassment or inappropriate conduct of a sexual nature.

Negligence

Negligence is an unintentional tort that injures a person, property, or reputation. There are four elements of negligence, all of which must occur or be proven for a person to be held liable for the injury. The four elements are:

Hazing can also be defined as any activity expected of someone joining a group that humiliates, degrades, abuses, or endangers, regardless of the person's willingness to participate. Athletic hazing can range in scope from relatively harmless initiation rites such as having rookie team members carry travel bags to potentially dangerous activities such as exploitation. Athletic hazing will not be tolerated in Columbus County Schools and disciplinary action will be taken against those planning and/or engaging in hazing.

Information concerning available counseling, rehabilitation and re-entry programs will be provided to employees.

V. Performance Enhancing Substances

The board of education supports the NFHS and the NCHSAA in terms of performance-enhancing substances:

1. If school is closed, no games will be played. An exception may be granted by the superintendent whenever extreme or unusual circumstances exist.
2. No practice will be held unless an exception is granted by the Superintendent.
3. When school is closed, no other activities will occur.

In the event conditions warrant and a teacher workday is scheduled:

1. Games may be played if weather conditions warrant.
2. Practice may be held after school is dismissed.
3. Practice may not begin until teachers and staff end their workday.

Severe Weather Precautions

When conducting practices outdoors, coaches and athletic trainers must be aware of weather conditions and act appropriately if these conditions change. Every year there are news reports about athletes being injured or killed by lightning strikes. These situations are completely preventable. Lightning, however, is not the only severe weather problem encountered. Very intense rainstorms and high wind conditions can also pose a threat to the safety and well being of our athletes. Anytime extreme weather conditions exist athletes should be removed from the field and into a safe structure.

Facts about Lightning

1. The average lightning strike is six miles long.
2. The average thunderstorm is six to ten miles wide.
3. The average thunderstorm travels at a rate of 25 miles per hour.
4. On average, thunder can only be heard over a distance of three to four miles.
5. Thunderstorms cause an average of 200 deaths and 700 injuries in the U.S. each year, most of which could have been prevented.
6. The method of counting between flash and sound to determine the distance of a lightning bolt is not a good safety guideline to use because if you can hear the thunder, the lightning is already close enough to be potentially dangerous.

Safety Precautions during a Thunderstorm

1. Take no chances—move inside a safe structure at the first sign of a storm. If you can hear thunder or see lightning, you are at risk! Move inside.
2. Do not seek refuge under a tree or beside any tall object in an open area.
3. Avoid contact with metal.
4. If caught in an open area, be a small target, crouch down.
5. Avoid high terrain and bodies of water.
6. Avoid electrical appliances and telephones inside.
7. Do not shower or take a bath during a thunderstorm.

Student-Athlete Health/Safety/First Aid

It is the responsibility of everyone to have knowledge of and put into practice recommended protocols set forth by the CDC, NCDHHS, State Board of Education, the NCHSAA, and the Columbus County Board of Education regarding COVID 19. As conditions change, administration and coaches must communicate the same to parents, guardians, and student-athletes. The central office contact for COVID 19 response is Dr. Heather Pigot.

Hot Weather Guidelines

Precautions must be taken to prevent heat-related problems. Coaches should use extreme caution when temperatures and humidity levels are high particularly in summer months. Heat related guidelines are outlined in the NCHSAA Handbook and on the NCHSAA website. These guidelines must be adhered to in order to protect student athletes from heat related stress.

First Aid Kits

1. Each school should have enough first aid kits available for each team. This does not mean every team has a kit, but during a particular sports season, each team participating in that season should have a kit. Kits can be shared among teams.
2. The Athletic Director or Athletic Trainer should coordinate distribution and re-supply of kits.
3. Items supplied in each kit may vary by sport. You may have a particular item for your sport that another sport does not need, but all kits should contain the same basic items which include the following:
 - a. Adhesive tape
 - b. Gauze pad
 - c. Assorted size band-aids
 - d. Triangular bandages
 - e. Antiseptic ointment
 - f. Ace bandage
 - g. Plastic bags for ice

Additional items necessary for management of blood/body fluid emergencies are:

- a. Rubber gloves for first aid
- b. Hand sanitizer wipes
- c. One biohazard bag
- d. Heavy duty absorbent towels (shop towels work well)
- e. Small bottle of Clorox and small spray bottle with water
- f. CPR face shield

Emergency First Aid Guidelines

1. Maintain current certification in First Aid and CPR
2. Life threatening emergencies require prompt intervention. The three most critical emergencies are: loss of breathing, loss of heartbeat, and severe bleeding.
3. Breathing Emergencies
 - a. Choking: Heimlich maneuver
 - b. No breathing: Rescue breathing
4. Circulatory Emergencies
 - a. Heart Attack: Recognize symptoms; have victim stop all activity and rest; help them to rest comfortable; call 911; assist with prescribed medication; monitor vital signs; be prepared to administer CPR if the victim's heart stops beating.
 - b. No heartbeat: Administer cardiopulmonary resuscitation
 - c. Severe bleeding: Cover with a clean bandage and apply direct pressure; elevate if no fracture is suspected; apply pressure bandages and additional bandages if necessary; use pressure points.
 - d. Shock: Signs of shock are restlessness, altered consciousness; pale, cool, moist skin, rapid breathing, and rapid pulse. Care for shock by having the victim lie down in a comfortable position; control external bleeding if present; reassure the victim; elevate legs about 12 inches unless a fracture is suspected. Do not give anything eat or drink. Call 911.

- e. Internal bleeding: Signs are tender, swollen, bruised or hard areas of the body such as the abdomen. Rapid weak pulse, cool, moist, pail or bluish skin, vomiting or coughing blood, excessive thirst, becoming drowsy, confused, fainting, or becoming unconscious. Care for internal bleeding like a victim in shock. Call 911.

5. Burns

- a. Critical burns: A critical burn can be life threatening and needs immediate medical attention. A critical burn is one that there is difficulty in breathing; covers more than one body part; involves the head, neck, hands, feet, or genitals; burns other than a very mild burn to a child or an elderly person; and burn resulting from chemicals, explosions, or electricity.
- b. Care for burns: Stop the burning; cool the burned area with large amounts of cool water; cover dry, clean dressing to help prevent infections.
- c. Chemical burns: Flush with large amounts of water until medical help arrives.

6. Muscle, Bone, and Joint Injuries

Signs of serious muscle, bone or joint injuries include significant deformity; bruising and swelling; inability to use the affected part normally; bone fragments sticking out of a wound; sensation of bones grating; hearing or feeling a snap or pop at the time of injury; area is cold and numb; and cause of injury suggests that the injury may be severe.

Splinting a suspected serious injury: Splint only if the victim must be moved or transported by someone other than trained medical personnel; splint only if one can do so without causing more pain and discomfort to the victim; splint an injury in the position it is found; splint the injured area and the joints above and below the injury; and check for proper circulation before and after splinting.

Care for soft tissue strains and sprains: RICE—Rest, Ice, Compression, and Elevation. Ice for 48 to 72 hours following a soft tissue injury and then use moist heat for follow-up treatment.

7. Head and Spinal Injuries

Signals of head and spinal injuries include: changes in consciousness; severe pain or pressure in the head, neck or back; tingling or loss of sensation in the hands, fingers, feet, and toes; partial or complete loss of movement of any body part; unusual bumps or depressions on the head or over the spine; blood or other fluids in the ears or nose; heavy external bleeding of the head, neck or back; seizures; impaired breathing or vision as a result of injury; nausea or vomiting; persistent headaches; loss of balance; bruising of the head; especially around the eyes and behind the ears. Use general care for suspected head or spine injury. Minimize movement of the head and spine; maintain an open airway; control any external bleeding; keep the victim from getting chilled or overheated; call 911 for help.

8. Sudden Illness

Signals of sudden illness include feeling light headed, dizzy, confused or weak; changes in skin color, sweating; nausea or vomiting; and diarrhea. General care of sudden illness includes: care for any life threatening illness first; help the victim rest comfortably; help the victim from getting overheated or chilled; reassure the victim; watch for changes in consciousness and breathing; monitor vital signs; and do not give anything to eat or drink unless the victim is fully conscious.

If the victim:

- a. Vomits: Place victim on his/her side.
- b. Faints: Position him/her on the back and elevate legs 12 inches if you do not suspect head or back injury.
- c. Has a diabetic emergency: Give the victim some form of sugar.
- d. Has a seizure: Do not hold or restrain the person or place anything between teeth. Remove any nearby objects that might cause injury. Cushion the victim's head using folded clothing or small pillow.

9. Poisoning

If a poisoning incident has occurred, try to find out what type of poison it was, how much was taken, and when it was taken. General care includes: caring for life threatening problems immediately and calling the Poison Control Center for assistance.

10. Bites and Stings

General care includes washing the area with soap and water; cold pack; watch for allergic reaction, call 911 if needed.

11. School personnel should never substitute their opinion for that of a licensed practitioner.

NCAA Clearinghouse

The Clearinghouse is a central repository for information on high school curriculums that that NCAA maintains to conduct evaluations on incoming freshmen. The operation conduct evaluations of high school graduates records in light of current NCAA initial eligibility requirements.

A prospective student athlete needs to apply and receive a "final" certification by the Clearinghouse in order to participate in college athletics at the Division I or II levels. A student athlete does not need to apply if he or she will attend a junior college, NAIA or NCAA Division III institution.

If student athletes will be attending a Division I or II institution they may apply after they have made that decision. The Clearinghouse will normally make a “preliminary” decision (one which reflects course work taken prior to high school graduation) only during the senior year. The Clearinghouse will issue a “final” certification only upon receipt of a transcript proving high school graduation.

Student athletes may delay the decision to register for the Clearinghouse and still be permitted to practice with their college team. However, they may not compete in any intercollegiate competition until “final” certification has been received. It is suggested that student athletes wait to apply for the Clearinghouse until either they are sure they will attend a Division I or II school or are being actively recruited by one. (Actively recruited meaning personally contacted by a coach.)

The registration materials have been mailed to all U.S. high schools free of charge. Most often forms are maintained in the school Guidance Office. A student may also write directly to the Clearinghouse to have the materials mailed to his/her home.

Columbus County Schools Sports Camps

All sport camps must be approved by Columbus County Schools system.

1. Coaches must submit all information to the site-based athletic director.
2. Site-based athletic directors will submit a plan to the principal and superintendent for approval.
3. Sport camps may begin after the last ten month day of employment, or last day of summer school.
4. All facilities must be cleaned and maintained after sport camps are complete.

Fund Raising Activities Policy

School fund raising activities take the time of students, parents, teachers, office personnel, and the administration. The schools are supported through taxation, and fund raising activities and events are to be held to a respectable minimum.

All funds raised in this way must be spent for the purpose for which the money was collected or raised. All fund raisers must be approved by the superintendent and the board of education.

Summer Practice

Coaches are allowed to work with their players during the summer in all sports, but beware of dead periods set forth by the NCHSAA. The purpose of these workouts should be individual development and instruction rather than team practice. There shall be no interschool play during the summer workouts. Any competition shall be non-school related. You must follow all NCHSAA Rules and Regulations.

Commercial Driver's License (CDL)

It is the responsibility of the head coach to transport athletes to and from events; therefore, each coach should obtain a commercial driver's license. In order to accomplish this, the coach should contact the athletic director and director of transportation to gain knowledge of the requirements for this license.

Fair Labor Standards Act

Any person who is not a certified teacher/coach and not employed by Columbus County Schools and is serving as a full-time or part-time coach must first be approved by the Principal, Superintendent, and Board of Education. If a salary is agreed upon, wages must be arranged in a contract before that person begins coaching the sport. All policies required by Columbus County Schools, such as a background check, must also be completed.

Employees of Columbus County Schools are divided into two categories: classified and licensed. Licensed positions include teachers, counselors, media coordinators, principals, assistant principals, psychologists, social workers, central office administrators requiring teacher licensure, and other positions requiring licensure by the Department of Public Instruction. Classified positions include clerical personnel, teacher assistants, ISS tutors in grades 6-12, interpreters, custodians, occupational and physical therapists, central office administrators not requiring teacher licensure, child nutrition workers, facility services workers, transportation workers, bus drivers and any other positions not requiring licensure by the Department of Public Instruction.

The Fair Labor Standards Act (FSLA) establishes minimum wage, overtime pay, recordkeeping, and child labor standards affecting full-time and part-time workers in the private sector and in Federal, State, and local governments. Overtime pay at a rate of not less than one and one-half times their regular rates of pay is required after 40 hours of work in a workweek.

The Superintendent will ensure that job positions are classified as exempt or non-exempt and that employees are made aware of such classifications. Supervisors will make every effort to avoid circumstances which require non-exempt employees to work more than 40 hours each week. A copy of the Fair Labor Standards Act and any administrative procedures established by the Superintendent will be available to employees in the personnel office.

All classified personnel must get clearance from the Principal, Superintendent, and Board of Education before any coaching can begin. If approved, every employer covered by FSLA must keep accurate records about the employee as well as data about the hours worked and wages earned.
